We chose the Holy Family for our patrons that we might imitate their virtues at the present and in the future. As youth yet unmarried, we can follow the example of the Christ Child, obedient to His parents; eventually, as parents, we can still look to the Holy Family for the Christian ideals of family life.

Our

Dedication

*Father, a girl who spoke few words! Deep that pretty smile (and crazy. Laughed! It had words
the juniors do without you!!
Always Johnnie*

We the members of the class of 1962 of St. Joseph High School dedicate this edition of the JOSEPHUS to Father Philip DeCarlo. We regard him as a spiritual director of the past and as a faithful friend of the present. Father served us in the capacities of a spiritual advisor and teacher for only a short while, but in that time he secured a permanent place in our hearts, making himself our friend forever. May God bless him.

Our pastor, Reverend Dennis J. Doran has been with us from our first year as freshmen at St. Joseph High School and he is still with us as seniors. Through those four fleeting years he has shown his kindness and understanding while instilling in us sound principles for living a good Catholic life. For this we offer our sincere thanks to Father Doran.

Our Spiritual Advisors

Father Robert Davis, our assistant pastor, has given himself unstintingly to several projects benefiting us both physically and spiritually as students. We are especially indebted to him for his untiring efforts to strengthen our athletic program, and above all for his lessons in teaching us of the Divine Love of God. To him, also, we extend a simple but sincere "thank you."

Scholastic

The Mission Club officers, Daniel Magoc, Sandra Mackowski, Carlotta DeAngelis, and Robert Conroy, explain its aims and purpose to these new members.

Edward Wiklendt reads a French Comedy before the French Club listens to it on record.

Karen Petrak, Lorraine Willey, Beverly Kowalski, and Catherine Matjasko, members of the Language Honor Society, broaden their French vocabulary through records.

Activities

Mark Papen demonstrates the complex structure of an atom to other members of the Science Honor Society, Vincent Sporcic, Barbara Gehenio, and Raymond Rieser.

The Planning Committee attempts to draw up a constitution for the Science Club.

These members of the Science Club show their project for the Science Fair to the officers, Thomas Culleiton, Ronald Kresinski, and Thomas Antkowiak.

Keith Wiedl solves the problem of transportation to a Math Honor Society meeting for John Wagner, Thomas Antkowiak, and Joyce Augustine.

Members of the Math Club discuss the proper use of a slide rule, a device used to speed up calculations.

The Sacred Heart Club enables these members to view with understanding the religious life.

Carole Fabry reads the recent newsletter from the Writers Honor Society to James Young, Joseph Gazarik, and Joseph Zalenski.

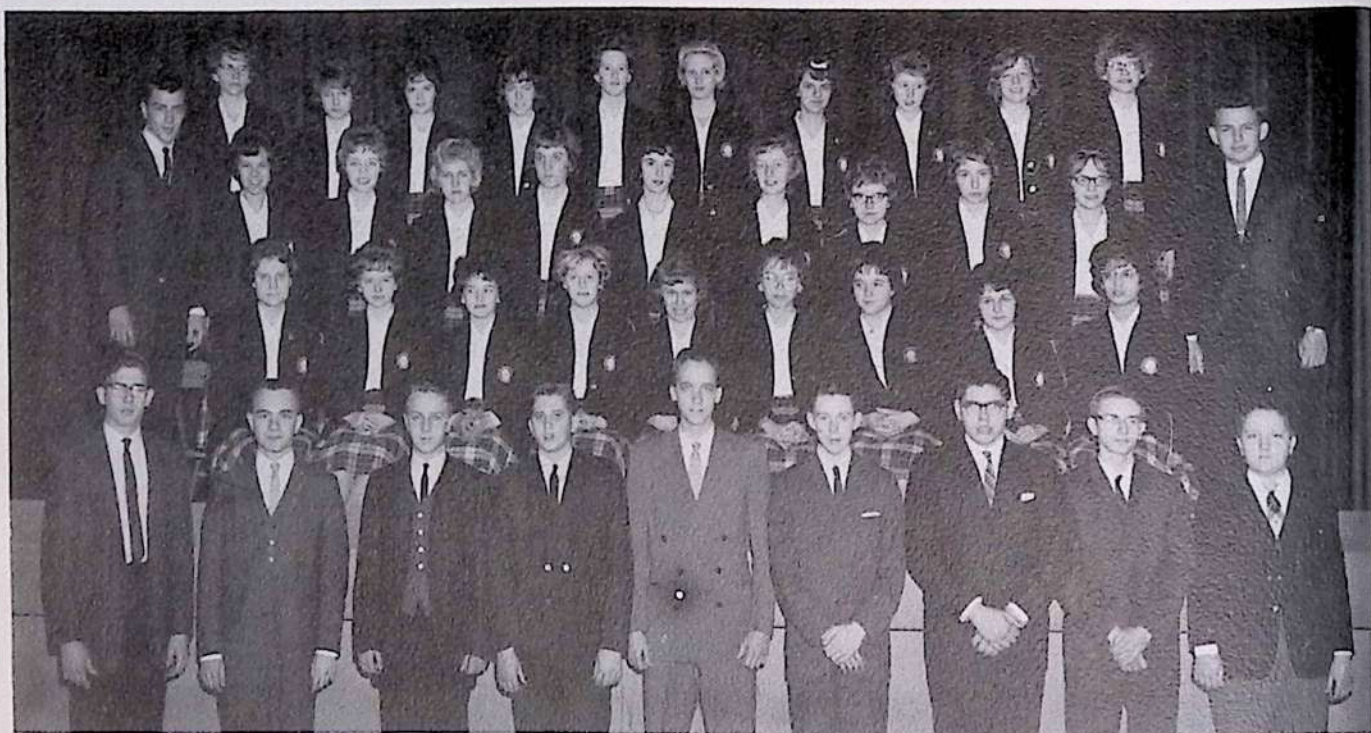

The talents of these Writers Club members shine forth in short stories, essays, poems, and newspaper articles.

Shirley Valarik, Sally Wetter, and Margaret Welsh display their skill in the business subjects by which they qualified for membership in the Business Honor Society.

Spartan fans celebrate Red and Blue Week by dressing themselves--and the school in red and blue.

Action at the tournament gets exciting.

Coaches accept the trophy from Bishop J. Wright.

Mr. Bill Jones, Post Grand Knight, K of C, shows Father Davis the trophies to be awarded at the CBIT Tournament.

Team Action

Ed Lowry from St. George doesn't have a chance against our ace player, Leon Krasinski, as he hustles to give our team possession of the ball.

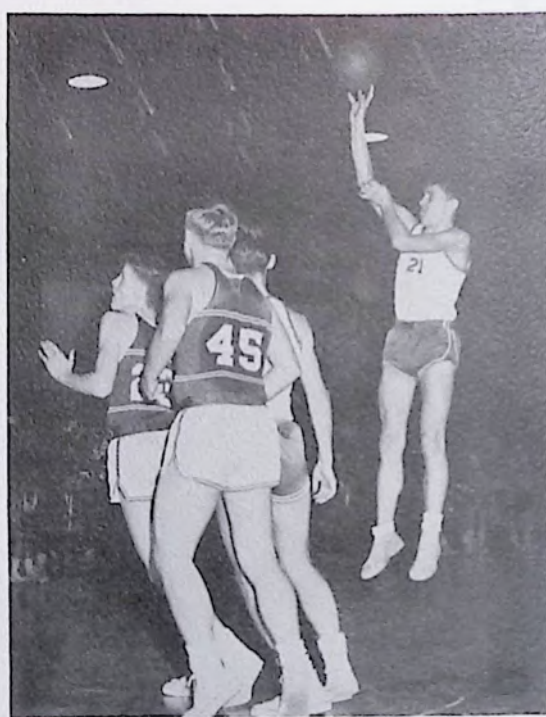

A fast break enables "Auggie" Demharter to up the score two points against St. Justin.

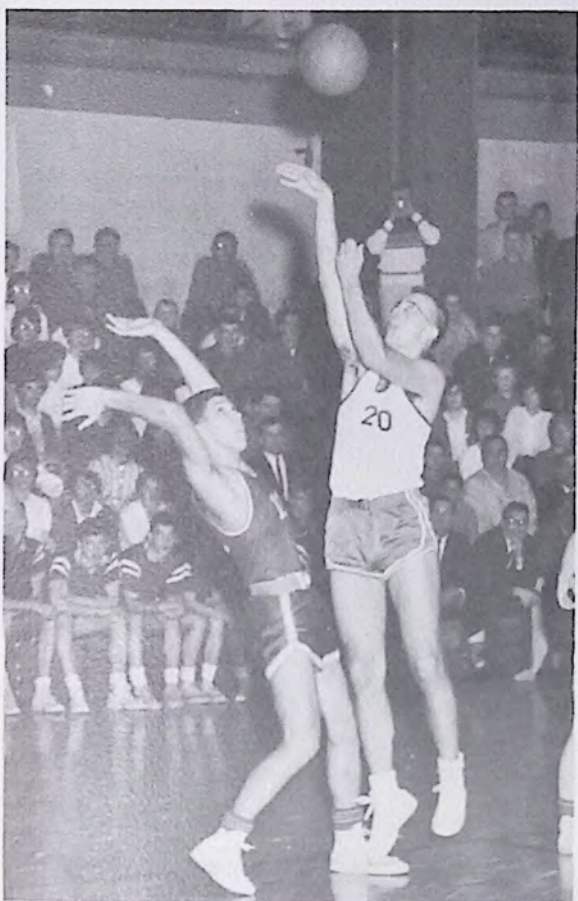

Aim for the basket, not for the rim. Come on, "Auggie," put it in!

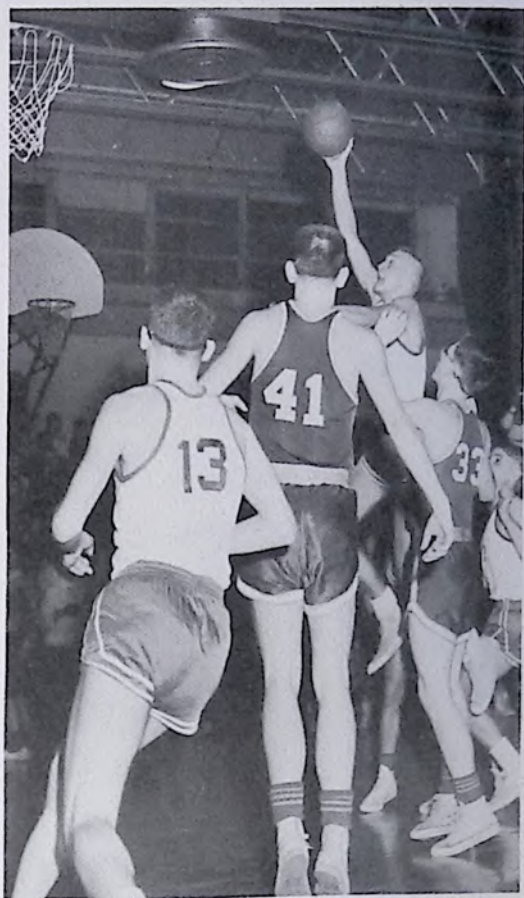

Tom "flies through the air with the greatest of ease."

Dave goes up to garner two more points.

"I surrender!" seem to be the words of this St. George player to Stan.

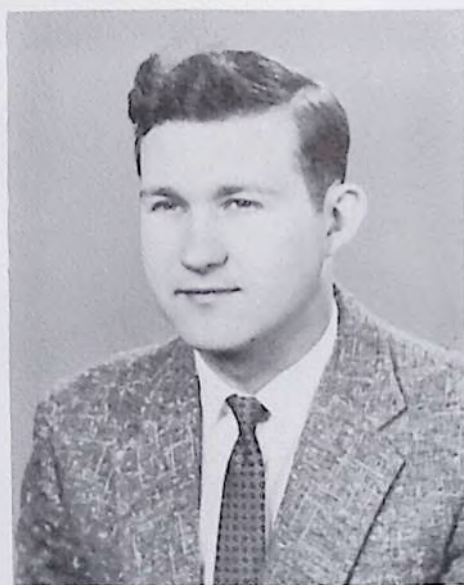

"Out of my way while I make this basket!" says Leon.

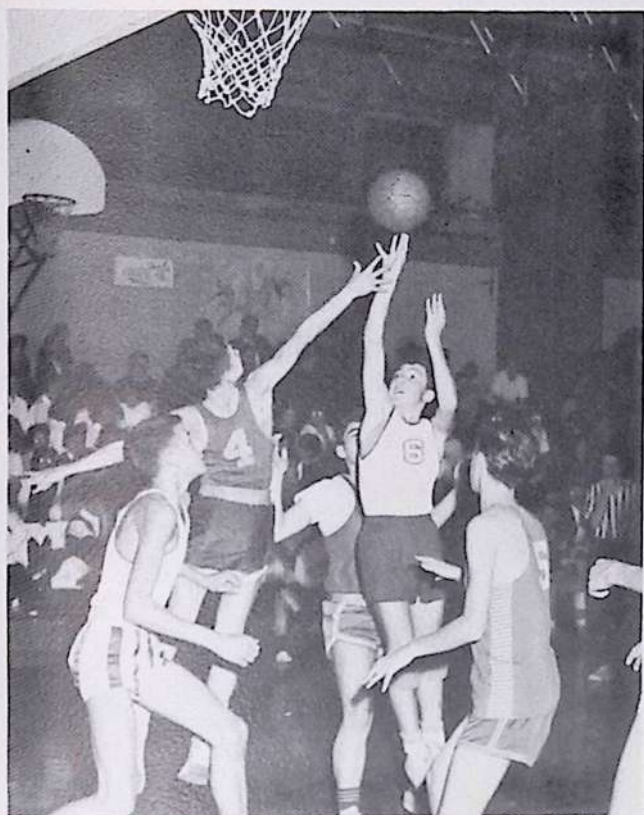

Tom and Stan urge Leon to: "Fight! Get that ball, fight!"

Cheerleaders and Fans

V-I-C-T-O-R-Y! "Victory! victory!" is our cry.

"All set? You bet!" begins another cheer at time out.

The Sophomores show what's in store for the Dragons as Dr. "Kilcasey" treats our previous opponents.

The excited fans cheer enthusiastically as the game between the Spartans and the Dragons intensifies.

The Sophomores gladly accept the varsity sweaters as the Seniors sadly relinquish them.

Baseball Team

The Spartan Baseball Team poses at the beginning of a promising season.

Under the management of Barry McCallister and coaching of Mr. Gene Koncki, Mr. Hank Dunn, and Mr. Harry Krug the Spartans are sure to have a winning season.
